

LORD'S DAY MORNING WORSHIP

PRELUDE

During the Prelude we ask that you would silently prepare your heart for worship.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 57:8-11

Leader: Awake, my glory! Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn!

People: I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to you among the nations.

Leader: For your steadfast love is great to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

People: Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth!

Leader: The Lord be with you!

People: And also with you!

Leader: Let us worship God!

Westminster Shorter Catechism #100

Leader: What does the preface of the Lord's prayer teach us?

People: The preface of the Lord's prayer (which is, Our Father which art in heaven) teaches us to draw near to God with all holy reverence and confidence, as children to a father, able and ready to help us; and that we should pray with and for others.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O great and everlasting God, who dwells in unapproachable light, who searches and knows the thoughts and intentions of the heart; we confess that we have not loved you with all our heart, nor with all our soul, nor with all our mind, nor with all our strength; nor our neighbors as ourselves. We have loved what we ought not to have loved; we have coveted what is not ours; we have not been content with Your provisions for us. We have complained in our hearts about our family, about our friends, about our health, about our occupations, about Your church, and about our trials. We have sought our security in those things that perish, rather than in you, the Everlasting God. Chasten, cleanse, and forgive us, through Jesus Christ, who is able for all time to save us who approach you through him, since he always lives to make intercession for us. Amen.

O God beyond All Praising (v. 2)

Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring, that we who know your favor may serve you as our King;
and whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill,
we’ll triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you still:
to marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways,
and make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise.
